

Greater Lowell
WIB
Workforce Investment
Board

The Merrimack Valley In Demand: Building a Better Workforce
A Regional Workforce Strategies Conference
Thursday, June 26, 2008,
8:30AM to 11:30AM

Riverwalk Conference Center,
354 Merrimack Street, Lawrence, MA
Directions: www.salvatoresboston.com

This statewide initiative will bring leaders in business, education, government, and workforce development together to develop concrete plans and partnerships to fill jobs that are in-demand in each region of the state and to develop pathways to the skills and opportunities that lead to success in our economy. The Center for Labor Market Studies at Northeastern University will present new Merrimack Valley labor market data to assist regional partners in developing strategies to solve workforce challenges.

Featured Speakers:

Suzanne M. Bump, Secretary

Massachusetts Executive Office of Labor and Workforce Development

Dr. Paul Harrington, Director

Center for Labor Market Studies, Northeastern University

Marty Meehan, Chancellor

University of Massachusetts Lowell

Continental Breakfast - Free Registration – Please RSVP by June 19th

Lowell area, Greater Lowell Workforce Investment Board, 978-937-9816 or oneilb@nmsda.org

Lawrence area, Merrimack Valley Workforce Investment Board, 978-682-7099 or fcarrberry@mvwib.org

Sponsored by the Merrimack Valley Chamber of Commerce
Hosted by the Workforce Investment Boards of the Merrimack Valley and Greater Lowell

The Executive
Office of Labor and Workforce Development